Australian Suppliers Celebrated at Coca-Cola Amatil’s 2018 Partner for Growth Awards.

Orora, Telstra Energy and KPMG were amongst nine companies recognised for their collaboration and innovation with Coca-Cola Amatil’s Australian business at the 2018 Partner for Growth Awards on Monday night in Sydney. More than 70 companies were in attendance.

“The Partner for Growth awards recognise suppliers who genuinely care about what they do and how they do it.” said Sarah Cook, Group Chief Procurement Officer at Coca-Cola Amatil.

“For us, that means suppliers who look to turn transactional relationships into genuine business partnerships. We’ve seen that from all nominees at these awards, and in the innovation and dedication they bring to everything they do.

“Together we’ve delivered some great outcomes in innovation, sustainability, product development and customer service.

“We’re proud to work with each of the nominees and winners tonight and congratulate them on the recognition they have received at tonight’s Awards.”

All the winners share Coca-Cola Amatil’s values of taking initiative and ownership, being straightforward and open, and focusing on today and tomorrow.
