Coca-Cola Amatil Completes Sale of South Korean Business

Sydney, 24 October 2007: Coca-Cola Amatil Ltd (“CCA”) advises that it has completed the sale of its South Korean business to LG Household & Health Care Ltd (“LGH&H”).

The total sale proceeds, including net debt, received by CCA for the sale of the Korean business was $520 million, which is in line with previous guidance of $520 - $545 million. After allowing for net debt of the Korean business of $106 million, the net consideration of $414 million was paid by LGH&H on 24 October 2007.

The Managing Director of CCA, Mr. Terry Davis said, “We are pleased to have successfully completed the sale of CCA’s Korean business to LGH&H following an extensive sale process. This sale delivers on a key outcome of our 2007 strategic review process.”

CCA will provide a trading update on its current business performance and forecast 2007 full-year outlook on Wednesday 5 December 2007.
